

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved our time at home and the quality of that time.

The effectiveness of Indiana's law has been extremely good. We used to receive 8-10 calls per week, now we don't receive any.

My personal view of Indiana's law is the fact that we are able to answer our phone with the intimidation of solicitors being on the other end. It also allowed us not have to screen our calls with either call waiting or our answering machine.

Please do not repeal this law or allow it's effectiveness to diminish.
